MEET YOU IN TELL.
Marby, I been readin'
How the War is done,
No more bloodshed.
Till the last battle is won;
No more fightin' sinin'.
Peace is come so quick.
Twas quick work, I'm thinkin'.
Quite a lively tune.

But the paper writers,
Oh, how they sing!
Till the last battle is won;

Blundered ev'rywhere;
War Department, sailors,
Just a lot o' talkin'.

Kings and queens is talkin';
Glovers was chumpin'.

But the War is ended,
Soldiers comin' back;
Just as I intended,
Fare to say kind o'—
Came Singin' and dancin';
Don't never know!

Never was a chicken;
Him a mighty blow.

Now the papers tell us
There was a sick stock,
Garrison was famous.

They had no knock;

Weil, I can't see through it;

How we do so well,

Loat so do we!

Mebe you kin tell?

George Diener has opened his Restaurant again.

The Review suggests that the Brooklyn town Council buy a few candles to light up the streets.

Remember the old stand, "The Roper," the only Restaurant open summer and winter. Fresh Oysters received daily.

That is not the new street-door hotel building going up Second and Sutton; it's merely a very much later.

Don't fill your coalhouse with poor Pomery Coal when you can get Black Band, Chopeau or Semi-canal Coal at the same price William Davis's Coal Yard, near Limehouse Mills.

Want you want Watch and Diamond, James Murphy, the Jeweler, is better prepared to give you bargains than elsewhere. See his bargains. An elegant gold filled Watch worth $30, my price $11. Others would sell them at this price if they could. Buying a large stock brings cash enables me to offer them at this price.

You invite disappointment when you experiment. DaWitt's Little Easy Risers are plain and simple, though little suits in the Law.

Sir Thomas Taucer of London, now in Cincinnati, has sold his interest in the company to over the survivors of Colonel Boone's Black Diamond Railway and report to the capitalists who attended from that place.

WILL THE PEOPLE SUBMIT?

Following are the net results of the infamous Gobell Election Commission:

Democrats absolutely control the election districts in every county in Kentucky. In 16 counties there are two Democratic and one Republican Election Commissioners; in 13 other counties there are two Democratic and one Republican Commissioner; and in the 11 remaining counties we have only Democratic Boards.

Republicans are in a helpless minority in all cases against the Democrats, and in 10 of the 16 counties in which they are absolute without representation on the Boards that are masters of the election machinery, passing all election contests and from whose most infamously disastrous there is no appeal.

The Republican organizations were not permitted to select the few Republicans appointed, and it is a remarkable fact that so many of them are absent, while all Democrats are present, having voted and acted with the Democratic party on every important occasion.

The mask of hypocrisy that was put on when Judge PAYSON was elected a member of the State Election Commission has been thrown off, and the Governor's secret is revealed to all its hideousness.

Has the Republican party been such an enemy to the state and Nation as to justify these outrages against law and decency to drive or keep it from power?

Is the supremacy of WILLIAM GOEBEL, the tall, high-handed master of importance to the welfare of Kentucky as to condone this unpeakable rape of the ballot?

Will the people submit?

For an indignant kicker regarding the management of the War, command to a Democratic Editor who never smelt powder, is the way THE INDISPENSABLE JOURNAL.

The wisest man yet developed in Spain by the War was the member of the Cabo not at the beginning of the hostilities expressed his sorrow that Spain had a single man of war.—COURIER-JOURNAL.

Surely that man ought to be happy now.

THE Franklin County Grand Jury has indicted the Frankfort Board of Underwriters on the charge of conspiracy to raise prices and destroy competition. The Mason County Grand Jury is gently reminded that there's a similar "conspiracy" in Mayville.

JOHN C. WOOD, Chairman of the State Railroad Commission, is the first officer of the present Republican Administration to announce his candidacy for re-election. The District he represents, Eastern Kentucky, is largely Republican, and he will likely be endorsed and re-elected, as he deserves to be.

In Chicago private ALBERT ECKDORF, Troop H of Colonel GREEN'S Rough Riders, was killed by an electric car. As he alighted from a Westbound car he was struck by a car moving in the opposite direction. He lived but a short time after the accident. This is another crime that is chargeable directly to the Secretary of War.

Spain protests against the capitulation of Manila because made two days after the Protocol was signed. Well, Spain wasn't the only pumpkin on the vine when the frost came. ANDY JACKSON licked PACKERHAM at New Orleans two weeks after pease had been declared between Great Britain and the United States; but his victory "went" all the same, and so will the surrender of Manila.

Two men who forced the summer campaign in the deadly tropical climate are the vampires who sought to increase the circulation of the yellow journals by hounding the President to a war which they must have known would cost ten lives by fever fever and other diseases where it would cost one by bullet and bayonets. Is this the same brand of patriots that is now sandbagging the men who were charged with the conduct of the war, self-safely precipitated by them.

Let the Electors next November bear in mind the actual condition of a Patriotic administration and endorse the non-success of the Republican party at the polls. No matter what the petty provocation may be to kick out of the traces and dislodge the old party from power it costs too much.

SILVER FOND.

By the lakelet where the water illices bloom
My love and I have wandered many a day
Among the pines that grow along the margin,
With squirrels leap from tree to tree in play.

There's a path along the margin of the lakelet
Where the cattie make a trail at set of sun
And when the green whinies let loose, it hides
Any thoughts that the weather's bad.

We carefully step onward till, undaunted,
Upon a grassy island fru we stand.

Surveying scenes that Nature has command,
We see the blue sky above us, and the green land.

Down where the sleepy illes are in blossom
The blue waves mirror heaven all the day;

At eve the stars shut out upon its bosom,
And rippled lightly kiss them as they play:

The breeze that blows so softly o'er the water,
Cools the burning lingers near the flower-sprites.

While the angling-birds sing, roses clangster
Sing the sleepy illes lulabye at night.

My love and I have spent precious hours here,

The years are slipping by for us too fast—
A great affection born mid Southern bowers

Gives holy joy beyond the grave to last.

EVERYWHERE THE SAME.

Chicago Tribune—Mrs. HAYNES—“I say here in the paper, that the war has served to bring the people or our country closer together. Do you think there's any truth in that?”

Mr. HAYNES—“Yes.” When I looked into the eyes of the young Lieutenant who was our Annie was setting a good deal closer together than I ever seen ‘em before he went away.”

PLenty of TIME.

Chicago Evening Post.

“An old and an old gentleman in an evening coat tone.”

“Yes, father,” replied the beautiful girl.

“That young man of yours who has just returned from the war is going to stay here sometime.”

“Why, of course, he is, father,” answered the beautiful girl. “I guess I know about that.”

“Do you think he is? I don't suppose you thought you didn't. I gathered from your actions that you thought he was going back again in the course of fifteen or twenty minutes, and that it was consequently necessary to rouse your entire stock of knees within that time.”

The old gentleman looked at the beautiful girl, and the beautiful girl blushed and said he was a mean thing and she didn't care, why he was a mean thing and she didn't care, anything.

DIED SUDDENLY.

Brig. Gen. Joseph T. Haskell Stricken With Apoplexy at Columbus, O.

THE GENERAL DIED IN A FEW MINUTES.

The Deceased Commanded the 17th Infantry at the Battle of El Caney and Was Wounded.

He Also Served in the Rebellion With Distinction—The Excitements Incident to the Arrival of the 17th at Columbus the Cause.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 17.—Brig. Gen. Joseph T. Haskell died suddenly at his home at the Columbus Club about 4 p.m. Friday afternoon. He was stricken with apoplexy, the excitement through which he had passed during the day being the immediate cause of the attack.

Gen. Haskell commanded the 17th infantry at the battle of El Caney and was twice wounded in the left shoulder and arm. He had been ill for a month ago and was rapidly recovering, the wound in his shoulder, however, had paralyzed his left arm, which he carried in a sling. Friday morning the 17th regiment returned home and Gen. Haskell went to the depot in a carriage to welcome his gallant men. He rode at the head of the regiment through the city to the station, where the immense crowds of people that lined the streets were directed almost as much to him individually as to the regiment. At the viewing the stand the crowd surrounded the carriage and flowers were fairily showered into the vehicle from every side. Although not as strong as formerly, Gen. Haskell appeared rugged and his sudden death was a terrible shock to his family and friends. At 4 o'clock afternoon Gen. Clay came to his residence to pay his respects. The general was resting at the time, but came down stairs. They had been engaged in conversation about five minutes when Gen. Haskell suddenly started to his feet, clasping his hands to his head, then fell to the floor. The only exclamation made was "Oh, oh!" Capt. Gray sprang to have a look and was surprised to find that his pulse had ceased to beat. Post Surgeon Pilcher was summoned and stated that death was caused by apoplexy. Mrs. Haskell was prostrated by her husband's death. Besides the widow two sons survive.

Gen. Haskell was born at Cincinnati, O., Nov. 19, 1818. He was appointed a captain of commissary subsistence in 1863 and served throughout the war. For gallantry he was breveted major, lieutenant colonel and colonel. He was made a brigadier general May 28, 1866, and was promoted to major of the 24th on June 28, 1872. He became lieutenant colonel of the 17th United States infantry on August 27, 1882.

From January, 1863, until January, 1872, he was in command of the San Juan Islands, which at that time were a border contention between the United States and Great Britain. This matter was settled by arbitration, Emperor William of Germany, deciding in favor of the United States.

In January, 1872, he appointed a member of the tactics board and helped compile the military tactics which are now used by the army. From Jan. 1, 1865, he was a member of the president's board of review for enlisted men for promotion and was president of the board that examined non-commissioned officers seeking promotion.

When Col. Polk was appointed brigadier general at the outbreak of the war, Gen. Haskell as lieutenant colonel assumed command of the 17th United States infantry and that regiment in the battle of El Caney, in which he distinguished himself by his bravery. He led the regiment through the success of which he was rewarded with the rank of brigadier general who surrendered the field house at El Caney to the Spaniards. There was a bullet struck right above his heart. He laughingly remarked to a lieutenant that he was hit in the heart. The remark was no sooner uttered than he was shot in the left shoulder. In another instant he received a bullet in his knee. Gen. Haskell, a member of the order on the first line, such attention was paid to his wounds as the improvised hospital service provided. The survivors of the 17th praised the bravery of their commander, the most heroic of them. Men that one declared that if he had not been wounded, the general would have allowed him to be last man to leave the ranks of the regiment and maintained his self-possession under a withering fire. The Spaniards had the range perfectly in each line of barbed wire fence and the regiment were withdrawn at such observation. It was natural Gen. Haskell fell wounded, that his advance was temporarily checked. For his bravery at El Caney, Col. Haskell was recently promoted to brigadier general.

Spanish Forces Commission Appointed.

Mr. G. S. Clark, the Spanish peace commission has appointed Senator Montero Rios, president of the senate, will preside. The other names are withheld until the queen regent has given her approval. Uncle Almodovar de Rio, the foreign minister, and Senator Moret, former secretary for the colonies, are engaged in drafting the instructions for the commission.

MORE OUTRAGES.

Spanish Haciendas and Cafetals Burned in Porto Rico in a Spirit of Revenge.

ATTRIBUTED TO THE LOWER CLASS.

The Planters Extremely Anxious That the Americans Obtain Control for Their Protection.

Officers Chosen at Utuado By Popular Will—The Details of the Spanish Evacuation of the Island is Practically Completed.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Sept. 17.—More depredations are reported to have occurred in the neighborhood of Utuado. Several Spanish haciendas and cafetales have been burned and two planters killed. These outrages are attributed to the lower classes of the natives, actuated by a spirit of revenge, and a lawless gang of brigands, which has been operating near Ciales. The Spanish planters fear for their lives and are extremely anxious that the American should obtain control in order to afford them protection, as the United States is powerless to preserve order in places within Spanish lines.

Upon petition of practically all of the residents of the town of Utuado, Gen. Henry has dispensed the old alcalde and appointed Senior Ramon M. Diaz, who had been inaugurated as American regidor, to be in charge of all municipal offices, including policemen. Utuado is the first town in the island to possess officers chosen by the popular will.

The details of the evacuation of the island were practically completed at a meeting of the commission held Friday, and all now depend upon the Madrid government, which has placed transports at the disposal of Capt. Gen. Macias for the embarkation of the troops. Failure to send transports will embarrass the Spanish commissioners, but the American commissioners will probably not set an absolute time limit for the evacuation, without instructions from Washington.

The Spaniards do not desire to cover all their troops here, for fear of endangering their health, unless they are informed when the transports will arrive. In addition to Laredo, Aguilado and San Sebastian, the Spanish will evacuate the island of Vieques on Monday.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Communicated to the Herald from Manila say: The insurgents changed their plans Thursday night, and instead of evacuating all the suburbs of the city, as Gen. Ots ordered, they moved from Ermita and Malate to Santaná, where they appear to be concentrating in strong force.

It is reported, although it has not been confirmed, that Adm. Montanez ordered that this place be held at any cost. It is more likely a move on the part of Pio Pilar to embarrass the dictator. The former rebel chief, Isabella Aracho, who was condemned to death by Aguilado for treachery in May and reprieved and released, is leading 15,000 men against Aguilado. Aracho is backed by priests.

A Jesuit priest was shot for persuading rebels to desert Aguilado's cause.

At the meeting of rebel leaders in Malate the majority will vote for autonomy under American protection.

Coasting steamers are trading with the provinces under Spanish rule. Aguilado demands 59 per cent of freight receipts of steamers trading with the rebel provinces.

All the rebels in the northern provinces are now prisoners. The rebels seized stocks and cash of the tobacco estates belonging to the Campania Tabacalera, in Cagayan province, and also those of Copraxis in Gumarines province. The losses are enormous.

The rebel steamer Bulasian has been sunk by a Spanish gunboat at Mar-

ASHLAND, Sept. 17.—The Manila dispatches stating that Aguilado has assembled all of the Filipinos at Malate gives no apprehension to war department officials, they feel satisfied that the opportunity for a real crisis has passed when Aguilado has secured his forces outside of the city of Manila. So long as the American forces in and about Manila are left untrammelled there is no disposition to restrict Aguilado in holding meetings of his followers outside of the immediate field of American operations.

Established a New Record.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 17.—A special train of an engine and four cars on the Chicago & North Western railroad established a record between Chicago and Omaha Friday morning, making a run of 493 miles in 8 hours and 29 minutes. It left Chicago at 9 o'clock Friday morning and pulled in to the Omaha depot at 5:39 p.m.

Peace Commissioners Start for New York.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The peace commissioners, with the exception of Senator Gray, who is expected to join the party at New York Saturday, left Washington at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon over the Pennsylvania railroad without any ceremony.

Earthquake in South Dakota.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 17.—A special to the Journal from Burley, S. D., says: An earthquake of unusual strength and duration aroused the people here at 4 o'clock Friday morning. It caused houses to tremble and dishes to rattle on the shelves for about 30 seconds. It seemed to travel eastward.

Secretary Day Tenders His Resignation.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The cabinet was in session an hour Friday morning, Secretary Alger being the only absent. Secretary Day tendered his resignation as secretary of state and took leave of his cabinet associates.

PLANS CHANGED.

Instead of Evacuating Manila the Insurgents Are Concentrating in Force at Santaná.

MANILA, Sept. 16.—Adjutant General Army, Washington.

In my opinion, based upon present indications, no further force required. Insurgent leaders in politics and army in inevitable frame of mind, but better position available to reason and desire to make approved reputation before civilizing word.

Get More and You Get Less

Why is it every sarsaparilla which tries to sell itself, ranges itself against Ayer's as the standard? Why is it that all have to offer extra inducements—bigger bottles, fancy wrappers, cheaper price—anything, everything, but the one inducement of quality?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla
has never been equaled by any cheap imitation of it, and quality tells, just as blood tells.

It is the Standard.

"We have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla for more than twenty-five years, and have never heard anything but words of praise from my customers; and I have never had any reason to doubt them. A preparation must possess great merit to maintain such a reputation. I have seen many sarsaparillas to be the best blood purifier, but have ever introduced it to the general public. I often hear other manufacturers say that this is 'as good as Ayer's,' but no one ever heard it said that Ayer's is not good. It is good, but it always stays near Ayer's up to the standard of excellence."—S. F. Boyce, Duluth, Minn.
